The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment, or if such prior notification is not possible, then within five days after such change;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, import, or manufacture any and all controlled substance and all controlled substance analogues, as defined in 21 U.S.C. § 802, and any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except that possession and use of a controlled substance properly prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner is permitted;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
- 14) the defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon;
- 15) the defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information; and
- 16) the defendant shall submit his or her person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, effects, computer, electronic communications devices, and any data storage devices or media, to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any federal probation officer, or any other law enforcement officer from whom the Probation Office has requested assistance, with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant. Any items seized may be removed to the Probation Office or to the office of their designee for a more thorough examination.

DEFENDANT: John L. Dooley
CASE NUMBER: DNYN112CR000380-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of any evaluation, testing, treatment and/or monitoring services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer based on his ability to pay and the availability of third party payments.
2. The defendant shall refrain from the use of alcohol and be subject to alcohol testing and treatment while under supervision.
3. The defendant shall not have any direct contact with a person under the age of 18 unless it is supervised by a person approved of by the probation officer. The defendant shall not have indirect contact with a person under the age of 18 through another person or through a device (including a telephone, computer, radio, or other means) unless it is supervised by a person approved of by the probation officer. The defendant shall reasonably avoid and remove himself from situations in which the defendant has any other form of contact with a minor.
4. The defendant shall not be in any area in which persons under the age of 18 are likely to congregate, such as school grounds, child care centers, or playgrounds, without the permission of the probation officer.
5. The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registry agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation or is a student.
6. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program, which will include, but will not be limited to, participation in a treatment program for sexual disorders. The program shall be approved by the United States Probation Office.
7. The defendant shall not use or possess any computer or any internet capable device unless the defendant participates in the Computer and Internet Monitoring Program (CIMP), or unless authorized by the Court or the U.S. Probation Office. If placed in the CIMP the defendant will comply with all of the rules of the program and pay the costs associated with the program. The U.S. Probation Office may use and/or install any hardware or software system that is needed to monitor the defendant's use of a computer or internet capable device. The defendant shall permit the U.S. Probation Office to conduct periodic, unannounced examinations of any computer equipment, including any data storage device, and internet capable device the defendant uses or possesses. This equipment may be removed by the U.S. Probation Office or their designee for a more thorough examination. The defendant may be limited to possessing one personal internet capable device, to facilitate the U.S. Probation Office's ability to effectively monitor his internet related activities.
8. If the defendant's employment requires the use of a computer, the defendant may use a computer in connection with the employment approved by the probation officer, at the defendant's place of employment, provided the defendant notifies his employer of: (1) the nature of his conviction; and (2) the fact that the defendant's conviction was facilitated by the use of the computer. The Probation Office must confirm the defendant's compliance with this notification requirement.
9. While in treatment and for the remainder of the term of supervision following completion of treatment, the defendant shall not view, possess, own, subscribe to or purchase any material, including pictures, videotapes, films, magazines, books, telephone services, electronic media, computer programs, or computer services that depict sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2).
10. The defendant's supervision may include examinations using a polygraph, computerized voice stress analyzer, or other similar device to obtain information necessary for supervision, case monitoring, and treatment. The defendant shall answer the questions posed during the examination, subject to his right to challenge in a court of law the use of such statements as violations of his Fifth Amendment rights. In this regard, the defendant shall be deemed to have not waived his Fifth Amendment rights. The results of any examinations shall be disclosed to the United States Probation Office and the Court, but shall not be further disclosed without the approval of the Court.

DEFENDANT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF APPLICABLE CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

The conditions of supervision have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
